

July 29, 1992

Mr. Alfredo Castellanos
G-3 Cuenoa, El Remanso
Rio Piedras, P.R. 00926

Dear Mr. Castellanos,

As Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements for the 1992 Republican National Convention, I am pleased to inform you that you have been selected as a state delegation aide for the 1992 Convention.

This Convention is an important milestone in the 1992 election cycle and will afford the Party an opportunity to highlight its agenda for our country's future. I am pleased you will assist us in the important undertakings of the Convention.

As a state delegation aide, you should coordinate your travel plans and hotel arrangements through your state delegation. One aide will be allocated a seat on the Convention floor with the state delegates, and the other aide will be allocated a seat on the Convention floor with state alternates. You will report to the Chairman of your state delegation. The Committee on Arrangements of the Republican National Committee will not provide any compensation or allowance for your expenses.

Congratulations on being selected; it is an honor. We look forward to a very successful Convention in August, and thank you in advance for your participation.

Sincerely,

Richard N. Bond
Chairman, Committee on Arrangements
